Bisbee, July 5, 1896.
THE CELEBRATION.
The Fourth is over and our celebration a thing of the past. The festivities started Friday night with the Grand Ball at the rink, and it proved to be the success that was anticipated. About seventy couples participated in the march and this number was greatly increased later in the evening until there must have been at least 300 dancers on the floor. A very enjoyable time was had by all. The ball broke up at four o'clock when all went home for a few hours sleep, at least we suppose they all went home though there are vague rumors that some did not see a bed all night. At Sunrise a salute was fired which woke every one up and soon the streets were alive with the ever present small boy and his firecrackers. At eight o'clock the first train left for the ball ground where the steering contest, horse races, foot races, etc. were held. The ball game advertised was not held as K. Troop of the Seventh is in the field and the players could not come in. At 2 p. m. the parade was started. It was headed by Grand Marshall C. C. Warner followed by mounted aids, Fire department, Goddess of Liberty in a chariot, school children, Grand Army and Horribles. The procession although small was about as creditable a one as could be expected considering our narrow and uncertain streets. Miss Beatrice Crouch as the Goddess looked charming and many compliments were paid her. The drilling contests followed immediately after the parade. Two entries were made in the double contest and five in the single. The burro race was won by young Leggit. The sack and wheelbarrow races were abandoned. At seven o'clock in the evening the band played "Columbia" and the people gathered in front of the program rendered, Miss Jennie Humphrey read the Declaration of Independence in a clear voice which was loudly applauded. The quartette sang "America." The oration delivered by Hon. Marcus A. Smith was a patriotic gem. The orator was frequently applauded by the audience, whose hearts were touched by the patriotic thoughts so eloquently portrayed by the orator. The Star Spangled Banner was then sung by the quartette and then Steve Upton was called on for a few remarks to which he responded in a fitting manner, the fireworks were then set off, and made a pretty sight. Many people were here from Benson, Tombstone, Fairbank, Huachuca, and other points, and they all spoke in glowing terms of the manner in which they had been treated by our people and of the celebration. Troop A of the First Cavalry passed five miles below town today on their return to Fort Huachuca. Lieut. Gates came into town and is spending the day with Dr. Farrington. Lieut. Gates captured an Apache boy on one of his scouting expeditions which he left at San Bernardino. "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up, and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." Chas. M. Gifford of Keadly, Fresno Co., Cal. "A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs." For Sale by Tombstone Drug Store.

John Tripp, a miner who has been at work at Hamburg in the Allen mines, committed suicide in Phenix last week by cutting his throat. He went to the capital city, filled up on Phenix whisky, lost all his money but $5 gambling, and then concluded life was not worth the living.
